

Bigelow Hollow State Park, Union, CT

Bigelow Hollow State Park, along with Nipmuck State Forest and Yale Forest, covers 9,600 acres in northern CT. A triumvirate of ponds, Bigelow, Mashapaug and Breakneck, with fishing, swimming, and boating are big draws for park visitors. In 1961, Frank Domurat caught a record largemouth bass, 12 pounds, 14 ounces in Mashapaug and as of today the record still has not been broken.

Frank Domurat proudly displays his astounding 12-pound, 14-ounce largemouth bass taken at Mashapaug Lake, Union.
